

WEEK 2: INTEGRATING ICT

End of week review

Websites and apps for learners

Below are links to the websites you shared on step 2.12 of the course.

Please note we are not recommending these websites or apps, they are simply a collation of your suggestions! The list is in alphabetical order and websites highlighted in yellow were recommended by several participants.

We apologise for any repetition, and hope you find something useful!

What is your favourite website/app for English learners?	What does it include?	Why do you/your learners like it?
Learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/en/	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	It has fun activities for children to use in class or at home.
http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Vocabulary, Games	level-differentiated material, frequently updated https://english.lingolia.com/de/	Language reference, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Vocabulary	They can check grammar rules in their L1
www.quizlet.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Games www.youtube.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos	youtube is very easy and helpful specially with many professional teachers

https://youtu.be/w-JUNYwstpo	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos	they adore singing the songs of their favorite singers
https://www.gamestolearnenglish.com/	Language reference, Grammar, Vocabulary, Games	they play instead of learning (this is what they think) starfall.com	Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	It's a site for very young learners and it's fun, lively, colourful and very easy to use. 'StarFall' has multiple games for younger students to increase English literacy skills.
www.ted.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos	The talks are short and they can choose from thousand so they always find something interesting www.kahoot.it	Language reference, Games, quiz	Interactive, fun and easy to use www.zunal.com	Reading, Videos, webquest	Encourages critical thinking and improves speaking and social skills www.nosycrow.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos	They make innovative, multimedia, highly interactive apps for tablets, smart phones and other touchscreen devices. These apps are not existing books squashed onto screens, but instead are specially created to take advantage of the devices to tell stories and provide information to children in new and engaging ways.
Oxford Thesaurus app	Language reference, Listening, Pronunciation, Vocabulary, Games	They are able to look for things on their own and to play a bit. Great even for students with a more executive-style.
cambridgedictionary.com	Language reference, Pronunciation, Vocabulary, Distinction between American and British English. The inclusion of Business English is great.	Easy to use. It includes a Thesaurus and even a translator from Spanish to English.

www.ello.org	Listening, Videos	Learners can listen to a topic of their choice. mp3s are authentic!
https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	My learners and I like it because it is a well explained and user friendly website even the total beginners are able to use it very well.
https://quizlet.com/de	Vocabulary, Games
www.teachingenglish.co.uk	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	The activities and the games are fun http://www.readwritethink.org/parent-afterschool-resources/games-tools/stapleless-book-a-30190.html#overview	Writing	because this kind of activity helps them develop their creativity.
speaker	speaking	they like to measure themselves improving their own pronunciation
http://tubequizard.com/	Listening, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary
http://ed.ted.com/	Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Vocabulary, Videos Gohighbrow.com	Reading	There are lots of short courses on different topics, such as science, space, health, languages, business, history etc. They consist of only 10 short texts one text a day.
film-english.com	Videos	Short films and cartoons with lesson plans

http://www.breakingnewsenglish.com/	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games, Culture, ...	They contain useful resources for them to revise and learn www.learnenglishfeelgood.com/vocabulary/index.html	Listening, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	Mainly because it is suitable for the course their learning needs
Onestopenglish.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Writing, Pronunciation, Vocabulary, Videos, Games
http://www.anglomaniacy.pl/vocabulary.htm	Listening, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Vocabulary, Videos, Games	because they learn a lot and don't get bored supersimplelearning.com	Listening, Videos, Games, Songs	There are many colouring activities www.wordreference.com	Language reference, Listening, Reading, Pronunciation, Dictionary	It has British and American English http://projectbritain.com/http://a4esl.org/
http://ipl.org		